

The Do Not Call is needed in NJ due to the lack of respect from telemarketers who keep calling even you specifically state that someone is deceased, they call at 8 am on Sunday mornings. There is a lack of respect and even common courtesy from these companies.